Stop Human Trafficking. Protect Lives. Vote YES on 35.

My dad and I had gotten into a really bad argument when I was 14. I started bouncing from one guy's house to another. The last guy that I ended up living with told me that I could either sell drugs or sell myself. And that day they took me to a place where you could purchase girls.

It was horrible.

You're dealing with constant harassment or physical abuse. Telling me, 'You might as well face it, you're just a ho. That's why all I'm doing is using you.'

Life was...it wasn't life.

For a lot of girls, their story ends in a car. I wanted to have a normal life.

People who are trafficking children and women in our community should not be any less at risk of criminal penalty than some guy who's selling drugs.

Prop. 35 is an answer to my prayers, and it's been a long time coming for girls like me and women like me.

Human Trafficking and Sexual Exploitation Is Happening Across California.

California received an "F" rating for its weak laws to combat the terror of sex trafficking.

Prop 35 Helps California Fight Back

Prop 35 is a statewide initiative that fights back against the sex exploitation of women and children. Here's how...

- Tougher sentences for traffickers.
- Use common sense and require convicted sex traffickers to register as sex offenders.
- Make every sex offender reveal every one of their predatory Internet accounts.
- Mandatory stiff fines on human traffickers to pay for services that help victims.
- Better training for law enforcement to identify and crack down on human trafficking.
